FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Local Tennessee Artist Wendy Adams is Receiving Recognition

November 1, 2005: Local Tennessee Artist Wendy Adams is receiving recognition in many arenas this November and December. Her paintings are appearing in many upcoming shows.

"Germantown en Plein Air" which opens at the Mad Hatter in Nashville with a reception from 5:30-7:30 on November 14 and runs through November 24, will include her paintings "Neighborhood" and "East Nashville".

Her One-Person Show, "Family, Friends and Frolic" opens at Frolic Boutique and Gallery in Atlanta, Georgia with a Reception from 5:00-7:00 on November 15 and runs through December 31. The show features over 30 landscapes by Adams, many of them of the Sewanee and Monteagle area.

In Chattanooga "Eye Candy" at AVA Gallery features "Green's View, Sewanee" and the Bill Shores Gallery will feature "Juicy". Both these shows open with receptions on December 2 and run through the month.

Wendy's studio, "Boxwood", in Monteagle will be opened during the CASTA Studio Tour on Saturday, December 3 and Sunday, December 4th. Her work can also be seen on display in Cowan at the new Franklin Arts Council Gallery, in Sewanee at "The Q" and in Monteagle at the Adams Edgeworth Inn.
